

Robert

Louis

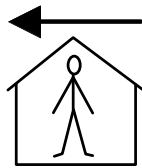

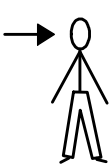

Stevenson

Robert Louis Stevenson was born in November 1850.

He lived in Edinburgh in Scotland. Even when he was little, he was often poorly.

17

When he was 17 he went to university to learn to be an engineer, but he gave it up. He really wanted to be a writer.

25

When he was 25 he met a lady called Fanny. They got married and moved to California in America. By now he was writing lots of stories.

In 1881 his family went on holiday to Scotland. Robert decided to write a story for his son who was poorly.

First of all, he drew and a treasure map.

He began to write a story to go with the treasure map. It was called

Treasure Island. Today it is a very famous story.

Robert Louis Stevenson also wrote lots of poems. People liked his stories and poems.

Robert Louis Stevenson was still very ill a lot of the time. He lived in hot countries because he felt better. He died in 1894, He

- 44

was 44.

